

Practical Information

Venue and Accommodation

The training will take place in Trebnitz Castle Education and Exchange Centre. It is a former estate situated 60km east of Berlin. Trebnitz itself is a small village with a little grocery store, café, and pub. You will be accommodated in shared rooms and provided with full board. There is also free WiFi. The castle and its surroundings offer a variety of possibilities to spend your leisure time (hiking, biking, ball games, bonfire, pool billard, ...). The standard diet during the training will be vegetarian. If you prefer a different diet or have specific dietary needs please indicate so in the registration form.

Directions

The easiest way to get to Trebnitz from Berlin is by train. There is a regional train (in German: Regionalbahn, RB) from "Berlin Lichtenberg" to "Trebnitz (Mark)" several times a day: 9:38 / 11:38 / 13:38 / 15:38 / 17:38. The destination of the train is "Küstrin/Kostrzyn" in Poland. You can check the schedule here. The site is available in English. The traveling time is about 45min. From the train station in Trebnitz, it's about 10 min walk to the Castle. Follow "Schloß Trebnitz".

To get to the station "Berlin Lichtenberg" you can take the metro (U5) or the local train (S5, S75). You can check the connections here. The site is available in English.

Please make sure you arrive on 29 Feb until 18:30, and leave on 7 Mar no earlier than 12:00!

Please consider the ecological impact of your means of transportation when traveling to Trebnitz and back. We advise participants to consider busses and trains first and use airplanes only if necessary. Those using airplanes we encourage to compensate for their CO² emissions, e.g. via atmosfair or myclimate.
